Sass Class Puppets with Arkem - Molly's Masquerade

Details

Description

Arkem Mark Walton is a performer, maker, educator and storyteller. He is a maximalist, recycling, dress-up, show-off, with a wish to build a better world. His playful approach seeks to queer things up for kids big and small.

Sass Class introduces kids to queer culture by encouraging kids to express their best selves and proudly show their sassy moves.

Please book the amount of tickets for the exact amount of people who will be attending. This is your total party size (both carers and children) e.g 1 parent and 1 child = 2 tickets
