

Dino Snores for Grown-Ups

Details

Description

The Natural History Museum sell-out sleepover has access tickets available for Deaf on 9 November. An interpreter will be available for Deaf visitors between 20.30 and 00.30 at the 9 November event. What happens when you sleep over at the Museum? The night begins with a welcome drink as you set up camp in Hintze Hall. Awesome activities As the evening gets under way, you'll have the opportunity to enjoy a range of activities, including: a delicious three-course dinner a trip to our galleries and temporary exhibitions live music stand-up comedy science show dinosaur-themed games room live animal workshop a pub quiz edible insect tasting an all-night monster movie marathon Cash bars will be serving drinks and nibbles throughout the night and in the morning you'll be treated to a full English breakfast and the chance to join a yoga session. An unforgettable evening Dino Snores for Grown-ups is an unforgettable night inside one of London's most impressive buildings. It's the perfect experience for a group of friends, or as a gift for a loved one.

Date

09 November 2019

Start Time

20:30

End Time

00:30

Costs

Costs

www.nhm.ac.uk/events/dino-snores-for-grown-ups.html

Booking Instructions - Please click 'book access tickets' on the webpage. Please note you need to buy an access ticket if you aren't Deaf but are booking in a group with a guest who is Deaf. This is so that you can all be placed in the same group on the night.

Venue Information

Address 1

Natural History Museum

Address 2

Cromwell Road

Town

London

Postcode

SW7 5BD
