

Connected by light

Details

Description

Connected by Light is a specially curated collection of light artworks, bringing nine new stunning illuminated installations to the Canary Wharf estate. The artworks will be on display from Wednesday 2 December until 27 February to ensure visitors can take their time to enjoy them. Some installations can be viewed at any time of day, but others will only come to life after dark so, to experience the pieces dazzling at their best, we advise you visit after dusk. All installations will be switched off at 10pm daily.
