Dive headfirst into the industry in this exclusive programme. Creative sessions will cover everything from building a profile and finding creative direction online, to shooting stand out music videos. You'll also learn how the different parts of the industry connect and what it's like to sign with a label. In the final session, you'll discover how to take your project out into the world and use marketing and PR to make it fly.

This is your chance to learn from insiders and people who really know what it's like to make a career in music. We're looking for the next generation of musicians, writers and producers.
