

The London Advantage

Details

Description

London is an incredible city to live in, and your time here will give you plenty of things to explore. Studying in London will give you many opportunities to get ahead when it comes to your career.

Queen Mary's main campus in Mile End is less than 20 minutes from the City, Canary Wharf, the West End and Tech City, offering you amazing opportunities to connect with employers.

East London is one of the most vibrant parts of the city. It's international and bustling – a place where new ideas spring up and great things take shape. We're proud to be an East London university, and can't wait to show you what that means.

Join us for this webinar to explore a whole host of reasons why we believe you should consider studying in London.
