Description

In these workshops, Helen and Carla lead you through joining one of our online events for the first time.

Get a feel for how our online events work and what you can expect from them. Practice using Zoom. Choose to join in with, or without, your camera and microphone turned on. Ask as many questions as you like or simply listen. It's up to you.

At half an hour long, the workshops are a great opportunity to get online and try things out. By the end, we hope you'll feel confident using Zoom and ready to join in with families at our other online events.
