Description

Service Description

The school is a beautifully refurbished Victorian building. We have a continuing programme of improvement to keep the premises attractive, safe and comfortable to all school users. The public areas are full of bright photographs and imaginative examples of children's work. The classrooms are large and bright, and fully equipped with computers, overhead projectors and whiteboards. We have a large computer suite, a dedicated music room and an attractive library. We have three large playgrounds and a nature garden. community access to facilities. For details of the individual school's programme, please contact the school directly.
