

Museum Of London Docklands

Description

Service Description

From roman settlement to docklands regeneration this 200 year old warehouse reveals the history of London's river port and people. Every Saturday and school holiday the museum holds free family events. Many of which link into themes studied at school.

Under 5's come and play together in our little mudlarks toddlers group and mini mudlarks babies group every Monday during term-time.

Enjoy story telling in our galleries on Thursday and special events during the school holidays. Please visit our website for full details and further information on our family and school programmes.

Additional Information

Additional Information

The Museum of London Docklands is the perfect place to learn about London's history and culture as a family. We offer family friendly welcome, interactive displays, activity bags and worksheets, special events for families, a children's gallery with soft play and a range of free sessions for Under 5s and their carers.

We also provide many different services for parents/carers and families such as: Second Saturday art drop-in for families, Holiday activities for families, Weekly toddlers group, and Weekly babies group.
