

Little St Matthias Pre School

Description

Service Description

We aim to provide premier care for your child and we do so with highly trained and qualified nursery staff. Every child is given individualised care to ensure they develop social , emotional , physical and intellectual skills within a caring and friendly environment. Our location is not too far from the heart of one of the most diverse business centre of London , we have excellent skills in caring for many children for whom English is not their first language . This introduce all the children in our care to a wonderful variety to cultures and celebrations.

Additional Information

Additional Information

Over 2's Year Old Preschool Class - Daily

Physical activities, intellectual and Cognitive Work, Emotional and Social Development, Language Skills, Moral, Art and Craft, Construction Play, English , Maths and Science , History, Geography, PE, Appreciation of Art, Literature and all kinds of Music, Drama, Sand and Water Play, Imaginative Play, Cookery, Computer Skills.

All of these activities will be specifically designed for young children and will allow each child to develop at their own pace. We also strongly believe in learning through play.

Within the rooms your child will have a Key Person who is responsible for your child's development record throughout this/her stay in that room. A Key Person system enables close cooperation between you and the nursery to monitor the progress and development of your child. We believe that communication between nursery and home is essential. You are welcome to discuss things with your child's key person but we could also advise you that management should be informed of all major changes or events.
