

London Enterprise Academy

Description

Service Description

London Enterprise Academy is a state funded secondary school that opened in September 2014 in Tower Hamlets. The school is based in Aneurin Bevan House which is a modern refurbished 7 storey office block on Commercial Road that includes state of the art facilities to engage learners.

It is a more personal school with 120 pupils in each year group. Pupils are grouped in smaller classes enabling teachers to know every pupil as an individual and be able to closely nurture and challenge them all.
