

Rainbow House Creche

Description

Service Description

A creche is a supervised play area for children whose parents are taking part in an activity on the premises. This could be a training course or leisure activity. All creches that run for more than two hours must be registered with Ofsted.

Additional Information

Additional Information

As the creche is adhoc, it is organised so that when there is an event in the London Muslim Centre, the creche is booked.

The cost varies depending on the number of children that attend.
