

Tower Hamlets Independent Send Parent Forum

Description

Service Description

We are Tower Hamlets SEND Independent Parents Forum, we are Pan Disability. We work with both families and professionals to provide a range of consultation opportunities and events, as part of this work we signpost families and professionals to appropriate services.

We represent the collective voice of parent/carers in Tower Hamlets.

The aim of our forum is to work with local partners to deliver change and better services for families to feed up local issues to create a national picture of SEND need, issues and provision and to feed down and share national and local information to keep parents/carers informed of their rights, of legislation and of good practice.

Giving parents the opportunity to talk to other parents and make your voice count towards a better future for all your children.
