

St Paul's Way Medical Centre

Description

Service Description

St Paul's Way Medical Centre is an NHS Health Centre located in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets. The practice has been managed by Mile End East and Bromley by Bow (MEEBBB) Health CIC, a Community Interest Company, since 2013. MEEBBB Health CIC is a not for profit organisation that works with patients and community organisations to improve the health outcomes for the local community.

Our values are empowerment, excellence, equality and learning. We work with patients and our community to design and improve our systems and provide our patients with the knowledge with which they can help themselves. We would like the practice to be a vibrant teaching and training practice and we will ensure the highest possible health care provision and support for patients.

The culture of the practice has been transformed through working with patients and collaborating with other local organisations including Bromley by Bow Health Centre, Merchant Street Practice, Stroudley Walk Health Centre and St Andrews Health Centre.
