

Gebretinsae, Yordanos

Description

Service Description

I make sure that I provide high quality childcare, with a positive, safe and happy environment. I am responsible for planning and preparing a programme of play based activities and in the completion of all relevant record keeping, paper work and administration.

Additional Information

Additional Information

Each child is an individual and will receive unique provision and resources when necessary to enable them to achieve their full potential. I will provide a full range of educational and pastoral support to all children with special educational needs to enable them to make progress. I will work closely with and seek support from other agencies when necessary in order to maximise learning potential for example: speech and language service, occupational therapy service, local authority service e.g educational psychologists, jigsaw, complex needs service.

I provide coffee mornings for parents in hopes of learning about their child and his/her needs.
